- Q.4 In Unit 7, Section C, you practiced general reading skills to understand written texts. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow. (20)

Time management is one of the most important skills that students need to develop for academic and personal success. A student who knows how to manage time effectively can complete assignments, prepare for examinations, and participate in daily activities without feeling overwhelmed. Proper time management helps students reduce stress because tasks are planned in advance and completed on time. When students follow a clear schedule, they are less likely to rush at the last moment or feel anxious about unfinished work. In addition, good time management allows students to balance their studies with family responsibilities and recreational activities, which leads to a healthier lifestyle. It also helps improve academic performance, as students can give proper attention to each subject. Over time, managing time wisely builds confidence, discipline, and a sense of responsibility, which are essential qualities for success in both education and future professional life.

- i. What is the main idea of the passage? W
- ii. Identify three benefits of time management mentioned in the passage. I
- iii. How does proper planning help students in reducing stress? H
- iv. In what ways does time management improve a student's academic performance? I
- v. Write a suitable title for the passage. W
